

Doctor Dina Azhgaliyeva participated at the 3rd Research Forum for Central Asia 2016 on 11 March 2016 in Cambridge, UK.

Doctor Dina Azhgaliyeva participated at the 3rd Research Forum for Central Asia 2016 on 11 March 2016 in Cambridge, UK. This forum is organised by the Bolashak scholars' initiative since 2014. She presented results of research "Local Content Policy and Sustainable Firms Performance: Case Study for Kazakhstan". This research is a collaborative work with Dr. Maksim Belitski and Professor Yelena Kalyuzhnova. Participants were particularly interested in the Kazakh-British Centre for Competitiveness. Dina received a Certificate of Participation signed by the Ambassador of the Republic of Kazakhstan to the UK of Great Britain and Northern Ireland H.E. Dr. Erzhan Kazykhanov and the Director of Research

Kazakhstan and Educational Innovations
Professor Colleen McLaughlin.

The certificate was given by the Minister-Counsellor of the Embassy of the Republic of Kazakhstan to the UK of Great Britain and Northern Ireland Mr Dauletbek
Kussainov and the Chairperson of the Cambridge Central Asia Programme
Professor Siddharth Shanker Saxena.